

ISLAMIAT EXAM-02: DETAILED MARKING REPORT

Bab 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7 (Version B)

Seemab · Class 9 · Attempt Date: 2026-09-13 · Corrected: 2026-09-14

FIRST EVER ISLAMIAT ATTEMPT: no prior attempt to compare against

Final Score: 30 / 46 · 65.2% · Grade B

Corrected 2026-09-14. Deep-checked 2026-09-14: 30/46 confirmed, all 30 MCQ reads re-verified blind. No marks changed from the original report . pdf. This version fixes two defects the deep-check found: several Urdu quotes below were paraphrased rather than verbatim, and a crossed-out-answer pattern on the MCQ page had not been written up. Both are corrected below; changes are marked [corrected] where they affect a quote.

17 / 30

Section A (MCQs) · 56.7%

6 / 8

Section B (Short Qs) · 75%

7 / 8

Section C (Long Q) · 87.5%

Version A / B finding: Seemab answered Version B, the corrected paper. Her Q.2(ii) is entirely about حضرت ام سلیم رضی اللہ عنہا (Hazrat Umm Sulaim), naming her role in the battles, giving water, dressing wounds, and taking part in Uhud, Khaybar and Hunain. This is the Version B topic. She made no reference to Hazrat Asma (Version A's topic), so no Version A / Version B split is needed for this attempt. The whole paper is marked against the Version B key throughout.

13 of 30 wrong. Two distinct clusters: Q.10–20 (Bab 3, covering Fatah Makkah, Ghazwa Hunain, Tabuk and Hajjat-ul-Wida numbers, names and places) and Q.23, 25–28 (Bab 4 akhlaq plus Bab 6 Sahabiyat and Bab 7 hadith). Q.23 (Hasad vs Rashk) and Q.25 (Hazrat Shifa vs Hazrat Umm Atiya) are exactly the kind of confusable-pairs mix-up flagged as her recurring weakness in other subjects, now showing up on brand-new Islamiyat content. Q.27 is notable: she named Umm Sulaim correctly and in full detail in Q.2(ii) below, but under MCQ time pressure wrote "Hazrat Zainab" for the same lady's son's name.

[added 2026-09-14] MCQ correction patterns, from the crossed-out first attempts visible on the scan:

- Second-guessing a correct first answer (new named weakness): on Q.20 and Q.25 she first wrote the correct letter (D on both), crossed it out, and switched to a wrong final answer (C on Q.20, B on Q.25). This is distinct from a knowledge gap: the right answer was there and she talked herself out of it. Worth watching alongside the Seerat cluster and the confusable pairs as a third, separate pattern.
- Self-correction that worked, no marks lost: Q.13, Q.21 and Q.24 also have a crossed-out first attempt, but in each of these the final answer she settled on is correct. So the habit of double-checking isn't the problem; it only cost her marks on the two questions above where the second guess overrode a right answer.
- Q.28 handwriting: her final letter is drawn ambiguously, closer in shape to a "P" than a clean D. It does not change the mark: the correct answer is B, so the answer is wrong under any reading of that shape.

SECTION B: Short Questions (6 / 8)

Q.2(i): Any two outcomes of the Battle of Hunain 2 / 4

غزوہ حنین کے دو بڑے نتائج یہ ہیں: اللہ تعالیٰ نے آزمائش سے دوچار کر کے بتا دیا کہ [مسلمانوں کو کبھی بھی اپنی تعداد اور ساز و سامان پر بھروسہ نہیں کرنا چاہیے، بلکہ اللہ پر توکل رکھنا چاہیے... ہمیشہ عجز و انکساری کی روش اپنانی چاہیے، کیونکہ [؟] کے باوجود شکست کا سامنا کرنا پڑ سکتا ہے۔

[corrected 2026-09-14] Verbatim reading confirmed by deep-check, replacing an earlier paraphrase. “بڑے” is written and then struck through by Seemab herself. One word immediately before “کے باوجود” remains unclear despite repeated zoom (possibly “کثرت”) and is marked as such rather than guessed.)

Assessment: Seemab explicitly promises "two big outcomes" (دو بڑے نتائج, self-corrected mid-sentence) but then develops only one point at length: the lesson that victory comes only through Allah's help and tawakkul, never from numbers or equipment, ending with a caution that even so, defeat can still be faced (the unclear word above sits in this closing caution). That is a fully valid, well-explained outcome (2 marks). No second, distinct outcome is given, nothing about the actual result (Banu Hawazin/Thaqif's power broken, the spoils and prisoners, or the road opening to Ta'if). Lost 2 marks for the missing second outcome.

Q.2(ii): Services of Hazrat Umm Sulaim (R.A.) in the battles 4 / 4

حضرت ام سلیم نے غزوات میں بھی حصہ لیا۔ آپ انصار کی چند عورتوں اور خصوصاً حضرت ام سلیم کو غزوات میں ساتھ رکھتے تھے۔ یہ خواتین لوگوں کو پانی پلاتیں۔ اور زخمیوں کی مرہم پٹی کرتی تھیں۔ غزوہ احد، غزوہ خیبر، اور غزوہ حنین میں حضرت ام سلیم نے شرکت فرمائی۔

[corrected 2026-09-14] Verbatim reading confirmed by deep-check (minor wording fix from the original report: "انصار کی چند عورتوں", not "انصاری").

Assessment: All four required points present: (1) she took part in the battles and the Prophet ﷺ specifically took her among the Ansari women, (2) she gave water to people, (3) she dressed the wounded, (4) she names three battles (Uhud, Khaybar, Hunain), clearing the "at least two" bar comfortably. Clean, complete, full marks.

SECTION C: Detailed Question (7 / 8)

Q.3: Compilation and codification of the Holy Quran (all three eras) 7 / 8

[corrected 2026-09-14] The quote below replaces an earlier paraphrase with the deep-check's verbatim reading, organised by era for readability. "... marks a portion of the scan the deep-check itself elided; nothing has been paraphrased or invented.

Heading (her own words):

جمع وتدوین قرآن مجید:

The Prophet's ﷺ era:

آپ... فوراً بعد قرآنی آیات کو لکھوانے کا خصوصی اہتمام فرماتے تھے۔ کھجور کی چھال، پتھر کی سلوں، چمڑے... اور اونٹ کے شانے کی ہڈیوں پر لکھا جاتا تھا۔

Hazrat Abu Bakr's era:

جنگ یمامہ میں قرآن مجید کے سینکڑوں حفاظ کرام شہید ہو گئے۔ حضرت عمر بن فاروق* اور دیگر جلیل القدر صحابہ کرام کے مشورے سے۔ حضرت زید بن ثابت کو اس عظیم کام کی تکمیل کے لیے منتخب کیا۔ قرآن مجید کو ایک مصحف کی صورت جمع کیا۔

Copy custody chain:

حضرت ابو بکر صدیق کے پاس موجود رہا، ان کی وفات کے بعد حضرت عمر فاروق کو منتقل ہوا۔... ام المومنین حضرت حفصہ کو منتقل ہو گیا۔

Hazrat Usman's era:

مختلف قراءتوں پر اختلاف پیدا ہوئے۔ حضرت حفصہ کے نسخے کی مختلف نقلیں تیار کر کے مختلف صوبوں کو بھجوا دیں۔ سب مسلمانوں کو ایک قراءت پر متحد کر دیا۔

* Naming slip, no mark lost: she writes "حضرت عمر بن فاروق", which blends the two correct forms of his name ("Umar bin Khattab" / "Umar Farooq"). Logged in the revision notes below rather than deducted, since the compilation narrative around it is otherwise correct.

Required element	Present?	Marks
Intro citing Surah al-Hijr, ayah 9	Not found anywhere in the answer	0 / 1
Prophet's era: memorised, written on stone tablets, leather, palm bark, camel bones	All 4 materials named	2 / 2
Abu Bakr's era: huffaz shaheed, Zaid bin Thabit heads compilation, one mushaf produced	[corrected] All present, and more precisely than first reported: she names the battle (Jang-e-Yamama) explicitly, credits Hazrat Umar's advice (naming slip aside) alongside other senior companions, names Zaid bin Thabit as the one selected, and states the result was compiled into one mushaf	2 / 2
Copy custody chain: Abu Bakr → Umar → Hafsa	All three named in order	1 / 1
Usman's era: qira'at differences, copies from Hafsa's mushaf sent to provinces, everyone united on one qira'at	All three points present	2 / 2

Assessment: Strong, structurally complete answer covering all three required eras with the right names and the right sequence, confirmed word-for-word by the 2026-09-14 deep-check: a genuinely good first showing on the heaviest question of the paper. The only clean miss is the opening citation of Surah al-Hijr, ayah 9 ("Indeed it is We who sent down the Reminder..."), which the marking scheme requires as the answer's introduction and which is confirmed absent anywhere in the scan. Lost 1 mark for that omission only.

DEDUCTION LOG (reconciles to 46 – 30 = 16 marks lost)

Item	Marks lost	Reason

Section A, Q.10	1	Wrote 30 degrees instead of 27 degrees for congregational-prayer superiority
Section A, Q.11	1	Wrote "attack on Madinah's pasture" instead of "attack on Banu Khuza'a" as the cause of Fatah Makkah
Section A, Q.15	1	Wrote 40 km instead of 30 km for Wadi Hunain's distance from Makkah
Section A, Q.16	1	Wrote "Banu Quraiza & Banu Sulaim" instead of "Banu Hawazin & Banu Thaqif"
Section A, Q.17	1	Wrote "Hazrat Abdullah bin Masood" instead of "Hazrat Abbas bin Abdul Muttalib"
Section A, Q.18	1	Wrote "keeping a promise" instead of "telling the truth" for Kaab bin Malik's repentance
Section A, Q.19	1	Wrote 9 AH instead of 10 AH for Hajjat-ul-Wida
Section A, Q.20	1	Wrote "Mina" instead of "Ghadeer-e-Khum"
Section A, Q.23	1	Wrote "Rashk" instead of "Hasad" (confusable-pair error)
Section A, Q.25	1	Wrote "Hazrat Umm Atiya" instead of "Hazrat Shifa" (confusable-pair error, explicitly called out in the key's own notes)
Section A, Q.26	1	Wrote "five" instead of "seven" battles for Hazrat Umm Atiya
Section A, Q.27	1	Wrote "Hazrat Zainab" instead of "Hazrat Umm Sulaim" as Hazrat Anas's mother
Section A, Q.28	1	Wrote "the poor one" instead of "the strong one"
Q.2(i)	2	Only one valid outcome (tawakkul lesson) given; second required outcome missing
Q.3	1	Opening citation of Surah al-Hijr, ayah 9 omitted
Total lost	16	46 – 16 = 30 / 46

Strengths

- Section C (Compilation of the Quran): 87.5%, all three required eras present in correct sequence with the right names (Zaid bin Thabit, Abu Bakr, Umar, Hafsa, Usman)
- Q.2(ii) on Hazrat Umm Sulaim: a clean, complete 4/4 with all four required services named
- First 9 MCQs (Bab 1 and early Bab 2, hadith compilation and Tauheed/Risalat basics): a clean run, no errors
- Shows good exam technique: writes reasoning notes for MCQs 2, 3 and 4 even though not required
- [added 2026-09-14] Self-correction habit that worked: on Q.13, Q.21 and Q.24 she crossed out a first attempt and settled on the correct final answer, with no marks lost

Areas to Revise

- Ghazwa Hunain / Fatah Makkah / Hajjat-ul-Wida cluster (Bab 3): 8 of 11 MCQs from Q.10–20 wrong; distances, tribe names, place names and years all need a dedicated re-read of this section
- Hasad vs Rashk: wished loss of someone's blessing is Hasad; wishing a similar blessing without wanting theirs to end is Rashk. She picked Rashk for the Hasad definition
- Hazrat Shifa vs Hazrat Umm Atiya: Shifa was the literate, famous physician even before Islam; Umm Atiya dressed wounds and cooked for the army. She swapped them
- Two required outcomes, not one: Q.2(i) asked for two outcomes of Hunain; she wrote one point twice over instead of a second, distinct outcome. Same habit worth watching in future long answers
- Opening ayah citations: Q.3 needed to open with Surah al-Hijr, ayah 9; remember to lead detailed answers with the relevant Quranic reference when the topic has one
- [added 2026-09-14] Second-guessing a correct first answer: on Q.20 and Q.25 the first, correct letter (D) was crossed out in favour of a wrong final answer. When unsure whether to change an MCQ answer, that instinct needs a real reason attached to it, the same "check the letter against your own reason" habit already being worked on in other subjects

Comparison vs prior attempts in this subject: not applicable. This is Seemab's first-ever Islamiyat attempt. A baseline for this subject starts here; future Islamiyat papers will compare against this 65.2%.

Marked from scans .pdf (4 pages, CamScanner) against answer-key .pdf (Version B) and exam .pdf. Every MCQ letter was re-derived from a magnified crop of the original scan. Deep-checked 2026-09-14: 30/46 confirmed, all 30 MCQ reads re-verified blind, no marks changed. This corrected version replaces paraphrased Urdu quotes with verbatim readings for Q.2(i), Q.2(ii) and Q.3, and adds the crossed-out-answer pattern on Q.13, Q.20, Q.21, Q.24, Q.25 and Q.28. One word in Q.2(i) remains genuinely unclear and is marked as such rather than guessed. This file supersedes report .pdf in content accuracy; per the additive-reports rule, report .pdf is left in place unedited.
